La Luna e le Stelle 2012

Dezzani 'La Luna e Le Stelle' Barbera d'Asti Superiore 2012 DOCG Barbera d'Asti, Italy 14.0% alcohol

The hand-harvested, 100% Barbera fruit underwent lengthy maceration before spending 12-14 months in barrique and bottle prior to release. Alluring aromas of charred toast, aromatic bitters and camp coffee interlaced with dark berry fruit unleash a smooth mellow wash of ripe black cherry and red licorice robed in mixed spice and excellent tang. It's medium weight with persistent flavours replaying on the finish and aftertaste. This is quite delicious sipped on its own and perfectly paired with all manner grilled red meat. (Vic Harradine)

88 Points

This is a quite generous, fruit-rich barbera with fairly lifted aromas of currant and raspberry, lightly accented by oak, and some floral and peppery notes. It's mid-weight, nicely smooth yet tart edged thanks to the grape's natural acidity. Tannins are quite fine. This is a nice drinking barbera that retains some authenticity.
