RED WINES

Poliziano Chianti
A flavoursome red with plenty of acidity. Great with roasts.

Fazio Torre dei Venti Nero d'Avola IGT
Well-structured rich red from Sicily.

Cantine di Marco Primitivo di Manduria DOC
Similar to an Australian red this wine is from the heel of Italy, Puglia.

Dezzani La Luna e Le Stelle Barbera d'Asti Superiore
A superior style of Barbera d'Asti. Good, round flavours and beautiful aromas.

Gomba Boschetti 'Traifilari' Barbera d'Alba DOC
A full-bodied red from Piemonte that's great with roasted meats and oily fish.

WHITE WINES

Bigi Orvieto
Made with trebbiano, this delicious, light white wine goes well with fish and seafood.

Cesari Essere Soave DOC
From Soave district in Veneto this fresh white wine has an almond aftertaste.

Fontana Candida Frascati
The most famous white wine of Lazio, this light and modern wine is good with chicken and veal as well as fish.

Italo Cescon Pinot Grigio
Comes in a traditional-looking bottle but is far from traditional. Delicious tastes of pear, it finishes crisp and clean.

I Feudi di Romans Pinot Grigio
A dry and rich white wine that can be drunk at any time.
